

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

All school sponsored student publications will be authorized by the school board. All such publications will conform to guidelines established by the building administrator in consultation with the faculty advisor(s).

Any issue that does not fall within the established guidelines will not be considered a school publication and it shall not be distributed on school property.

All student publications will be under the supervision of the building administrator or his/her designee.

Student publications will include both written and electronic communication.

Adopted 2001
Reviewed 2017

